Order Revoking Resident Producer License

This matter comes before the South Carolina Department of Insurance (the Department), upon application of David E. Belton, Esquire, Senior Associate General Counsel for the Department, requesting the revocation of April M. McGee's ("Producer") resident producer's license.

After careful review of the evidence presented the Department issues the following decision.

FINDINGS OF FACT

Producer is currently a South Carolina resident producer.

In the State of South Carolina at the Spartanburg County General Sessions Court on April 25, 2007 producer plead guilty to, "Breach of Trust w/Fraudulent Intent, Value >$5,000.00.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Pursuant to S.C. Code §38-43-130(A)(B), (A) "the Director or his designee may place on probation, revoke, or suspend a producer's license after ten days' notice when it appears that a producer has been convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude".....(B) "For purpose of this section, "convicted" includes a plea of guilty or a plea of nolo contendere, and the record of conviction, or a copy of it, certified by the clerk of court or by the judge in whose court the conviction occurred is conclusive evidence of the conviction." Because April M. McGee has plead guilty of, "Breach of Trust w/Fraudulent Intent, Value >$5,000.00 the Department now move to revoke her producer' license.

THEREFORE, it is ordered that April M. McGee South Carolina resident producer license shall be revoked thirty (30) days from the date of this order, and no license issued through the state of South Carolina Department of Insurance is to be issued to her, unless April M. McGee requests in writing within said thirty (30) day period a public hearing before the South Carolina Administrative Law Court.

It is FURTHER ORDERED that the National Association of Insurance Commissioners be immediately notified of this order.

This South Carolina Department of Insurance administrative disciplinary order is a public record subject to the disclosure requirements of the State of South Carolina's freedom of Information Act, S.C. Code Ann. §§30-4-10, et seq. (1991 and Supp. 2000). Nothing contained within this administrative disciplinary order should be construed to limit or to deprive any person of any private right of action under the law. Nothing contained within this administrative disciplinary order should be construed to limit, in any manner, the criminal jurisdiction of any law enforcement or judicial officer. Nothing contained within this administrative disciplinary order should be construed to limit the statutory duty of the Director of Insurance, exercised either directly or through the Department of Insurance, to "report to the Attorney General or other appropriate law enforcement officials criminal violations of the law relative to the business of insurance or the provisions of this title which he considers necessary to report." S.C. Code Ann. §38-3-110(3) (Supp. 2000).
